SUBJECT: IRAN: GOE DISTRACTED BY ITS OWN HRC CANDIDACY

REF: STATE 66050

Classified By: PolOff Jarahn Hillsman, Reasons 1.4 (b&d)

¶1. (C) PolChief delivered RefTel points on May 3 to MFA U/S for Multilateral Affairs, Mauricio Montalvo, conveying U.S. and international concerns over Iran's bid for a seat on the Human Rights Council (HRC). Montalvo said no decision had been taken on the issue but said he did not believe that the GOE could ever be persuaded to vote for Iran. He noted that the GOE itself is a candidate for the HRC membership. Ten GRULAC states, including Venezuela and Cuba, are contending for 8 seats. Each needs a minimum of 96 votes to win. Montalvo expressed disappointment that the HRC selection process had fueled "vote swapping rather than a focus on human rights records." He said the GOE mission in New York was heavily engaged in HRC preparations, but ultimately instructions would come from Quito.

¶2. (C) Comment: Given GOE distraction attracting votes for its own candidacy, it is unlikely to campaign actively against others.
